

Behavioral Profile

1. From your dashboard, use the Search at the top right of your screen and click on the person you want to view from the search results.

2. Under the candidates profile, on the left side of the screen, you will be given several options to view their report.

About the Individual

Overview

- A quick high-level view of the behavioral pattern for the individual.

Person Snapshot

- What a person's drives and motivations are, and how others may perceive them.

Behavioral Report

- Create a report kit and read about a person's strongest behaviors, view a behavior summary and see management strategies.

Placard

- Help employees better understand each others' unique communication styles by posting this.

Coaching and Development

Personal Development Chart

- Leaders can use this to help team members on their career development journey with custom behavioral strengths, cautions and tips

Manager Development Chart

- Customized development and awareness tips so that managers can leverage their behavioral strengths

Management Strategy Guide

- Managers can use this to customize the way they manage each team member based on their individual behavioral needs

Individual with Others

1:1 Relationship Guide

- Use this to help two individuals manage, and even avoid conflict through a shared reflection and understanding of their behaviors. Comparing two people and how they work together.

Individual's fit as a candidate

Other Job Matches

- See more positions in our organization for which a person's Behavioral Pattern is a close match.